

Constitution Day Celebrations

26th November 2019 – Constitution Day Celebrations

The Constitution Day or the National Law day is celebrated in India on the 26th of November every year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India, which is the longest in the world. The year 2019 marks the 70th Constitution Day and the faculty and students of CARE observed the Constitution Day with great dedication. Keeping in line with the directives of the MHRD, a live telecast of the commemoration function of the Constitution Day comprising of speeches by the Honourable President of India, Honourable Vice President of India and Honourable Prime Minister of India at the Central Hall, Parliament House was screened for the benefit of the students and following this, the Faculty of Chettinad School of Law explained the preamble to the students. The live telecast proved to be very inspirational to the students who earnestly took the pledge to abide by the Preamble.
