As part of the Chettinad School of Law’s Guest Lecture Series 2020, a lecture was hosted by Chettinad School of Law on 21st August, 2020 on “Food Law and Security”. The distinguished speaker for the session was Dr. Rohit Roy, Assistant Professor, Christ (Deemed to be University), Bangalore and the moderator for the event was Ms. Joanna Esther Shalini, Student, Chettinad School of Law, Chennai. The students of Chettinad School of Law along with other participants from different parts of the country attended the session. Ms. Joanna started the session by introducing the eminent speaker and gave an overview of Chettinad School of Law and the various initiatives taken by it. Dr. Shyamtanu Pal, Associate Professor, Chettinad School of Law, Chennai, then delivered the Welcome Address and welcomed the speaker, students and the participants.

The speaker started the discussion by introducing the topic of Food Security, its scope and its importance in today's context. The Speaker also dealt with key issues in food law and its preventing methodologies. This discussion was done keeping in mind various aspects of law contributing towards effective precautions in food law. Overall the discussion was very much relevant in today's context as it gave us a insight on Food Law and Security.

The webinar ended with an interactive session that saw the enthusiastic involvement of the students and other participants in asking questions and getting their doubts clarified by the speaker. The vote of thanks was then delivered by Ms. Ruchi Sinha, HOD (I/c.) Chettinad School of Law, Chennai.
