

Guest Lecture on Indian Contract Act 1872: Scope and Applicability

29/02/2020

Chettinad School of Law organized a guest lecture on Indian Contract Act, 1872: Scope and Applicability by Mr. Shaji M. (Assistant Professor) Crescent School of Law B.S. Abdur Rahman Crescent Institute of Science and Technology, Chennai on 29th February 2020. He touched upon the intricacies on various aspects of the law relating to Contract giving special emphasis on the evolution of contract law in India, scope of contractual obligations, rudiments of the contract, liability, remedies of contract, exoneration of contract etc. The students have been introduced with the subject in the current semester; this session was immensely useful as it opened new vistas of the law relating to contract. The session was highly interactive and he critically discussed the subject keeping the Indian applicability and transformation that the law on Contract has seen through.