

GMU International Maritime Arbitration Competition (06.03.2020 – 08.03.2020)

The Students of Chettinad School of Law has participated in the 1st International Arbitration Competition conducted by Gujarat Maritime University - "GMU INTERNATIONAL MARITIME ARBITRATION COMPETITION 2020" which is the transitory campus in Gujarat National Law University held on 6-8 March. Arbitration is a procedure in which a dispute is submitted, by agreement of the parties, to one or more arbitrators who make a binding decision on the dispute. In choosing arbitration, the parties opt for a private dispute resolution procedure instead of going to court. Arbitration and ADR present immense career opportunities to lawyers—especially young lawyers looking to explore new ways of lawyering in today's competitive, dynamic, and increasingly client-driven legal marketplace. Today's clients need alternatives. Having an alternative to litigation continues to be in increasing demand.

The students of School of Law learned about the Arbitration and techniques from the arbitrators of every corners of the world. The Students of School of Law has done Immense research on the proposition given by the organizing University and started preparation a month before the competition. The Students had gained great experiencing in Researching, Drafting a Memo, and learned how an arbitrators will speaks and solve the disputes between the clients. The were great experts in Arbitration across the country who judged the Competition. The Finale was Judged by Mr Sameer Shah, Cdr. Madhvendra Singh Jagon and Ms Meenakshi Iyer . Finally as said by Norman Rockwell "Right from the beginning I always strived to capture everything I saw as completely as possible " the Students of School of Law will surely bear the fruit of victory in upcoming Arbitration Competition.
