Agenda 1

To restart general health camps

Owing to second wave of COVID19, all the general health camps to the nearby villages were halted. Discussions were done about restarting general health camps from the month of July with proper COVID precautions in nearby villages as government has lifted the lockdown in a phased manner.

Agenda 2

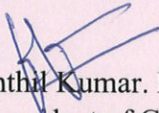

To increase the awareness about health camps

Discussions were made about increasing the awareness to people in nearby villages about the reinitiation of health camps, so that health care delivery to the general public could be effectively improved.

Agenda 3 To reinitiate the transport services to nearby villages

Discussions were made about reinitiating the transport to nearby villages to help the referred camp patients reach free OPD with ease. It was decided to forward the same to Vice Chancellor office and Registrar office for further action.

The convenor thanked all the members and concluded the meeting.
