

Street Play on Discrimination Against Women

Date: 20.03.2021

Venue: Padur

Summary: As a part of NSS and UBA, CARE, the Chettinad School of Law conducted a street play on Discrimination against women at the adopted village of Padur. They have demonstrated four cases of injustice that happens in our society against women like, the discrimination during the birth of girl child, education for girl child, post marriage harassment for money from drunk husband as well as eve teasing of girls at street. They conducted the event in Tamil and many villagers attended the street play. They also explained which law is implemented when such a discrimination happens. At the end they interacted with the villagers and explained them about the different laws which can save the women in distress. The programme was conducted under the guidance of Dr. Renu Goitra, CSOL, Dr. Chandrika, CSOL and Dr. Koyeli Girigoswami, UBA and NSS coordinator, CARE.
