The Chettinad School of Law organised a documentary screening in collaboration with the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of the Chettinad Academy of Research and Education on the topic "Indian Freedom Struggle" on 29th March, 2021 on account of the 75th Independence Year Celebrations. The screening was done on online mode through zoom app. The moderator of the event was Mr. R. Shanmuga Sundaram, student of the Chettinad School of Law. The event started with a welcome dialogue delivered by Ms. Alin Gedsa A, and Ms. Suvethaa Sri. S students, Chettinad School of Law. Then, Ms. Moshithaa. A and Jino J Sathia expressed their views on the India's road to freedom. Students of various schools of CARE attended the event.

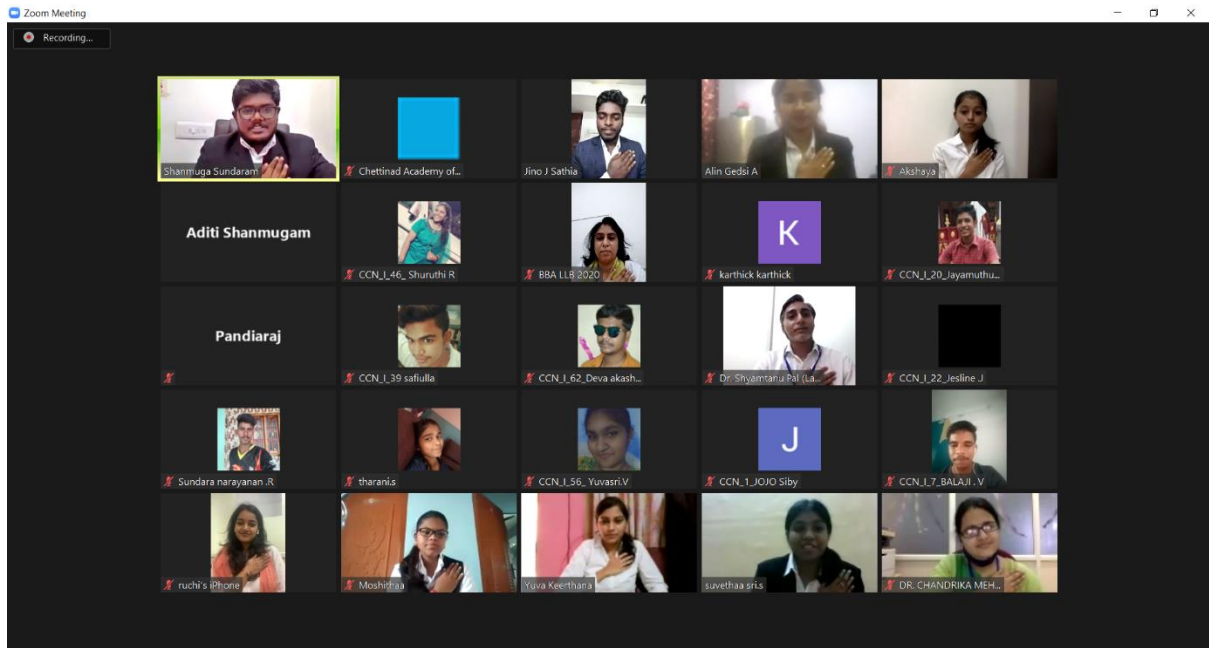

The documentary, made by the students of Chettinad School of Law started with Revolt of 1857. Then it shed light on the role of the Indian National Congress in the freedom struggle, the heroic role played by Bhagat Singh, the significance of the non-cooperation movement and the civil disobedience movement, the inspirational efforts undertaken by the Indian National Army, the Quit India movement and finally ended with India's first Independence Day. The event concluded by a vote of thanks delivered by Ms. Akshaya P. Nair, student, Chettinad School of Law.

A composite image. The top part is a cartoon illustration of British soldiers in khaki uniforms, some holding rifles. The bottom part features three black and white portraits of Indian leaders: Mahatma Gandhi on the left, Bal Gangadhar Tilak in the middle, and another leader on the right. The text 'Shaped the demand of the people and India's nationalism' is written in white on a black background at the bottom. The image also contains a 'mocomi' logo and a 'unacademy' logo.
