Life at Chettinad School of Law

Mooting Culture

Chettinad School of Law commits towards establishing the moot culture by organizing moot activities on a regular basis which includes sessions conducted by experts to inculcate moot skills and mandatory moot exercises in specific subjects as a part of internal assessment. The School also plans to organize a National Level Moot Court Competition to mark its presence in the national moot arena. In order to promote the moot culture the University dedicates itself to a policy of sending their students to various moot court competitions across the country and abroad.

Internship Program

Chettinad School of Law follows a rigorous internship schedule by offering mandatory summer and winter internships every year. The Law School has a dedicated Internship protocol which the students have to follow right from their first semester onwards. These internships are documented with the help of an Internship Diary given to the students on the very first day of the session. The Law School Internship Cell dedicatedly works for providing internship ranging from NGOs, Civil Societies, Trial Courts, High Courts, Supreme Court, reputed Law Firms and MNCs.

Debating

Chettinad School of Law encourages the students to instill the skill of critical thinking and excellent oratory skills. In that direction, various debate competitions activities are organized on various contemporary issues.

Capsule Course

One of the key highlights of Chettinad School of Law is that it offers regular Capsule Courses in the undergraduate and postgraduate programmes. These courses are designed to enrich the students in various specialized domain of law by expat faculties. In the academic year 2019-20, it has successfully organized two capsule courses on Jurisprudence and Comparative Constitutional law.
